

❖ Economic Development Director / Assistant City Manager Job Opening ❖

The City of New Ulm, Minnesota (pop. 13,500) is currently seeking a full-time Economic Development Director / Assistant City Manager who wants to be a part of a driven and dynamic team. This position is responsible for assisting in developing and implementing economic development programs for the City with the goal of business retention, expansion and attraction. The position will perform a wide variety of staff support and research tasks relating to the City of New Ulm, Economic Development Authority and New Ulm Public Utilities. An undergraduate degree in Public Administration, Urban Studies, Business, Economics or a related field is required. At least two years economic development experience and a minimum of three years of progressively responsible management experience, experience in governmental environment preferred. This position provides a compensation range of $77,417 to $94,182 and a competitive benefit program. You must apply online by visiting our website at <http://www.newulmmn.gov/>. Please call 507-359-8235 with any questions. Application deadline is 4:00 PM on May 15th. EOE